

BENEFITS AND TAX CREDITS – RECENT CHANGES

Who is this course for?

Are you struggling to keep on top of all the social security and tax credits changes? This course will update your knowledge of current issues in administration, legislation, case law and practice. The course will focus on the new Government's announcements to date. This is not an introductory course.

Aims

This course will update participants on recent and future changes of the benefits and tax credits system.

Objectives

By the end of the course participants will have greater knowledge of:

- Recent and imminent changes to social security and tax credit administration
- Recent and imminent changes to benefits and tax credits legislation
- Important caselaw summaries
- Related community care changes
- What further help, advice and information Surrey Welfare Rights Unit can provide
