

Made Redundant?

Who is this course for?

Advice agencies are seeing a huge increase in clients who have been made redundant. This course will help you understand what entitlements are available for the recently redundant and how to make timely claims. The course will also cover how to advise clients who are on short-time working. You need to have knowledge of the benefits system if attending this course.

Aims

To gain a better understanding of the benefits that people who have recently been made redundant may be entitled to.

Objectives

At the end of the course delegates will have:

- Better understanding of how to advise clients who have been made redundant, including what information you need from clients
- Better knowledge of what benefits clients may be entitled to and how end of employment payments may affect claims
- Improved knowledge of how to advise both employed and self-employed clients who have lost their employment
- Gained skills in advising clients who are currently on short-time working