

Becoming a SWRU Subscriber

Subscription is open to any organisation. From January 2009 subscribers will have exclusive access to the Consultancy Advice Line. Subscribers' benefits include:

- Exclusive access to specialist consultancy service which includes:
  - Monday to Friday telephone access 10am - 12pm
  - E-mail advice
- Regular newsletter "Welfare Writes"
- Factsheets and other mailings
- Discounts on training courses - up to £55 for some small organisations
- Benefit rates posters
- Benefit rates pocket cards
- E-mail alerts including priority notice of training courses
- Website resources

The tariffs are now based on income bands per organisation. So we can change our subscription period from the calendar year to the financial year (April to March) we are inviting organisations to subscribe for January to March with a one-off payment of a quarter of the new annual rates. We will then offer annual subscriptions from 1 April 2009 at the following tariffs:

	Annual gross income	Annual subscription 1 April to 31 March
Voluntary / not for profit	Less than £50k	£150
	Less than £200k	£300
	Over £200k	£475
Statutory / Other	N/A	£775